COVID-19 Philanthropic Response

Key Findings

Amount Committed

$99.5 Million*

85% coming from private foundations

15% coming from a mix of public, non-profits and registered charities

79% of funders are accepting applications from new and existing grantees while 19% are only accepting from existing grantees

70% of funders intentionally aligned their priorities with those of their communities by being more inclusive in their COVID-19 response

61% of funders' COVID-19 responses have an undetermined end date

82% provided unrestricted funding, and 66% provided restricted funding 6% of foundations provided loans

The majority of funders find that communication and collaboration are crucial to ensure a positive impact within the communities they serve

*50 funders responded to the survey

Funders' COVID-19 responses were in line with PFC's 5 guiding principles

...by being flexible, pragmatic, and proactive in grant-making

42%

Provided funding to support COVID-19 response

34%

Modified reporting procedures and deadlines

34%

Removed restrictions on existing grants

Enabled reallocation of existing grants to COVID-19 related activities

24%

Advanced payments on existing grants

....by contributing to emergency funds at the community and national levels

20%

Modified payment schedules and other banking procedures

Modified application processes

12%

Contributed to emergency funds at community and national levels

....by protecting the capacity and resilience of nonprofit and charitable organizations

50%

Supported charitable and volunteersector development

....by supporting advocacy in equity-seeking groups

Provided in-kind support or pro bono

18%

Of funds went to non-qualified donees

30%

Of funders supported Indigenous organizations

....by taking the long view and staying engaged

76%

Of funders answered that they were collaborating with other funders

55%

Of funders have increased their disbursement quota

What percentage of funders are contributing to the following sectors?

Social services

68%

Accommodation & Housing

36%

Community Benefit

18%

Health

62%

Environment

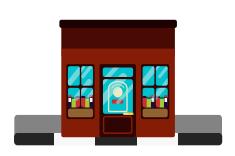

34%

Recreation & Leisure

12%

Charitable and voluntary-sector development

50%

Arts & Culture

24%

International Development

8%

Education

42%

Law and Policy

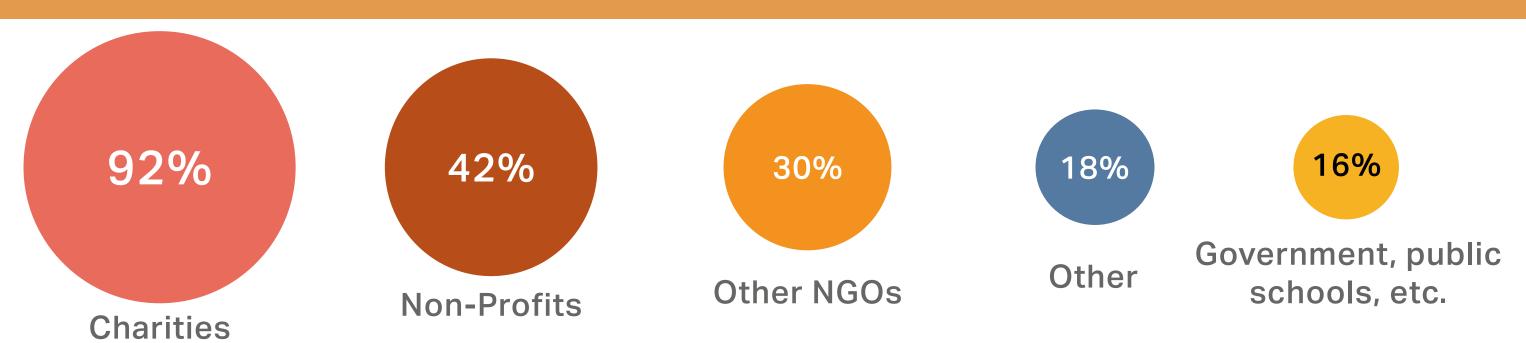

20%

Religious Organizations

4%

Percentage of funders supporting each category of organization

What actions are funders taking to stabilize, recover, and rejuvenate from COVID-19?

